"Hand in hand, for wine in Venice"

Among the most beautiful and fascinating cities in the world, Venice not only boasts an invaluable artistic and cultural heritage but has also always been a crossroads and strategic hub for the wine trade. This is evidenced by places, signs, and traditions that remain intact and relevant to this day.

"Hand in hand, for wine in Venice" is a tour organized by professionals to promote the wine culture connected to the lagoon city. It is a walking tour through alleyways, bridges, and underpasses, in search of the place names related to Malvasia.

The final stop of the tour will be a typical Venetian "bacaro" (tavern), where a guided tasting of local wines will take place, led by a professional sommelier, and where participants can also enjoy traditional Venetian cicchetti (small snacks).

- 12:30 pm: Guided tasting of 3 local wines, led by a professional sommelier, at a "bacaro," along with a tasting of cicchetti.
