1. Update reunion 2025

Date of the reunion is confirmed: October 18th

Location: by PWC in Milan – Maximum capacity: 120. Contracts with PWC needs to be signed to access the facility. The registration of participants is required to be completed some days before the event to allow the logistic and security aspects.

Cost of catering and coffee break to be defined, supplied by Pellegrini group.

About the agenda, we confirmed the 3 streams, Artificial intelligence, Energy transition, Geopolitical dynamics.

About Energy transition, the speaker's selection is still ongoing.

About Artificial intelligence, we have the confirmation from Patrizia Palazzi, Siemens Healthineers. We are identified a couple of women to be involved: in the next weeks the board should contact them and check their availability.

About Geopolitical dynamics, we are evaluating a tough leader in national and international geopolitical analysis and business management. Prof Stefano Pilotto could be involved as well in the panel discussion.

For the next meeting, board members will contact the potential speakers to check the availability.

With regards to the Association meeting, the board is working on a momentum to celebrate the 20th anniversary before the annual reunion and or interactive/gaming activity.

The board member should evaluate if organizing the social dinner.

2. Update on the networking activities on field

On 28th March there was the MIB Talk in Pordenone on real experience on change management in a new ERP implementation by Lorenzo Demaria as speaker (EMBA21). The event attracted new participants, with high engagement during and after the talk.

On April 09th prof Stefano Pilotto did a speech on geopolitical situation update, hosted by ASFOR.

Also this event brought had good success with many comers, mainly former alumni, that did not participate to the previous events.

An event in Trieste with the possibility of remote connection hosting Tim Baxter is under evaluation.

In Padova area there could be a MIB talk in June on how communicating innovation or entrepreneurship in Italy, based on speaker availability.

In Milan there could be another event in May and in June on topics to be still defined and in Treviso the board is planning an event in June.

Abroad, on May 09th our ambassador in Zurich, is organizing a trip to Salzburg to connect MIBers in Germany, Austria and Switzerland.

A networking aperitive in Luxemburg in the coming months is still under evaluation.

The communication team should consider the advertising of the MBA Cup, soccer tournament that will be held in Bologna on June 07th-08th.

The meetings ended at 22:52 CET.
